Translating Across Genres: Practices & Challenges (TAG -PC)

Dates: 03 – 04 November 2025

Amity School of Languages

Amity University Rajasthan, Jaipur, India

Conference Overview: With globalization and digital media, the demand for specialized translation has grown exponentially. This conference addresses the need for tailored approaches to ensure accuracy, cultural relevance, and functional effectiveness across genres. The International Conference on Translation Studies with the theme, Translating Across the Genres, invites scholars, researchers, practitioners, and students to explore the latest developments, challenges, and innovations in the field of translation and interpreting in the era of digitalisation. This interdisciplinary conference aims to foster discussions on theoretical, practical, and technological advancements in translation, bridging academia and industry. This international conference celebrates the diversity of translation across all genres and specializations, from literary and technical translation to multimedia localization and AI-driven solutions. The International Conference on Translating across Genres: Practices & Challenges is an academic event that brings together scholars, translators, linguists, and industry professionals to discuss the complexities of translating different genres—such as literary, technical, legal, medical, audiovisual, and digital texts. We invite translators, researchers, educators, and industry professionals to share insights, challenges, and innovations that define the multifaceted world of translation today.

Submissions on a wide range of key themes and subtopics but not limited to the following are welcome:

- Literary Translation: Fiction, poetry, drama, graphic novels.
- Audiovisual Translation: Subtitling, dubbing, voice-over, translation for theatre.
- Translation and Technology: Machine translation, AI tools, digital humanities.
- Academic and Scientific Translation: Ethics, accessibility, disciplinary discourse.
- Multilingualism and Language Politics: Translation in conflict zones, minority languages indigenous knowledge systems.
- Drama for Performance: Translating plays for the stage versus the page.
- Translating the Digital: Localizing websites, social media content, memes, and marketing campaigns; Transcreating slogans and brand identities.
- Business & Marketing Translation: Transcreating advertisements, annual reports, and corporate communications to persuade a new cultural audience.
- Academic Translation: Translating scholarly work across disciplines. Handling citations, jargon, and rhetorical conventions of different academic traditions.
- Journalistic Translation: Translating news articles with speed and neutrality. Navigating media bias and culturally sensitive topics.
